

Hotel accommodation in Reading

The following hotels in Reading are within walking distance in order of proximity and based on personal recommendations and reviews on Trip Advisor - http://www.tripadvisor.co.uk/Hotels-g186363-Reading_Berkshire_England-Hotels.html. They also appear on various hotel booking websites where you get the best deals. Make sure that breakfast is included in the room rate as it is often expensive or poor value, if paid separately.

This information is provided in good faith and the Mills Archive cannot be held responsible for poor value or poor service.

15-20 minute walk

Premier Inn (Reading Central) <http://www.premierinn.com/en/checkHotel/REAPTI/reading-central> - this is directly below the flyover so may be noisy. Close to the Oracle Riverside restaurants and cinema

Mecure George in the centre of Reading (oldest hotel in Reading dates from 15th century) <http://www.mercure.com/gb/hotel-7317-mercure-george-hotel-reading/location.shtml>

The Penta Hotel, Oxford Road, Reading - Mills Archive visitor recommended this hotel <http://www.pentahotels.com/en/hotels/llrph-reading/everything/>

Malmaison Hotel, Station Road in the centre of Reading - 5 minute walk from Reading Station <https://www.malmaison.com/locations/reading/>

Novotel Reading, Friar Street in the centre of Reading – indoor heated pool <http://www.novotel.com/gb/hotel-5432-novotel-reading-centre/index.shtml>

Ibis Reading, Friar Street in the centre of Reading – budget accommodation but good reviews <http://www.ibis.com/gb/hotel-5431-ibis-reading-centre/index.shtml>

Great Expectations – hotel and pub on London Street – budget accommodation – can be noisy <http://www.relaxinnzreading.co.uk/>

25-35 minute walk

Thameside Hotel, Caversham Road - Trip Advisor Certificate of Excellence in 2013 and 2014 <http://www.thamesidehotel.co.uk/>

The Crown Plaza on Caversham Bridge – north of the town centre overlooking the Thames – part of Holiday Inn Group – heated indoor pool and spa and secure parking – lovely riverside walks <http://www.ihg.com/crowneplaza/hotels/gb/en/reading/reauk/hoteldetail>

Premier Inn (Caversham Bridge) – further along Richfield Avenue from The Crown Plaza – next door is a Toby Carvery – <http://www.premierinn.com/en/hotel/REABAR/reading-caversham-bridge>

Beech House Hotel, 60 Bath Road, Reading - Trip Advisor Certificate of Excellence in 2014 <http://www.beechhousehotel.com/>

Hillingdon Prince Hotel, Christchurch Road - budget accommodation – a cross between B&B and self-catering. Good reviews on Trip Advisor <http://www.hillingdonprince.co.uk/> - Mills Archive visitors have had a comfortable stay.

Further out

University of Reading Accommodation – Cedars Hotel, Whiteknights Campus – Summer vacation

You can stay on the University of Reading campus during the summer vacation. The Cedars Hotel is right in the middle of the landscaped campus – very quiet. It's about 45 minute walk to the Archive. <http://www.reading.ac.uk/venue-reading/Sleep/vr-cedars-hotel.aspx>

Holiday Inn Reading South – on Basingstoke Road, near to Junction 11 M4. Buses close by into Reading Town Centre – heated swimming pool

<http://www.ihg.com/holidayinn/hotels/gb/en/reading/reaso/hoteldetail>

Best Western Moat House, Sindlesham <http://www.bw-readingmoathouse.co.uk/>

Best Western Calcot Hotel <http://www.calcothotel.co.uk/> - Close to J12 on the M4