

England | Local News | Regions | Berkshire

River Kennet hydro power idea back on council's agenda

🕒 11 hours ago

GOOGLE

| The River Kennet has a 100m fall across West Berkshire

By Niki Hinman

Local Democracy Reporting Service

Energy generated from rivers could be used to power local authority buildings, 20 years after the idea was first suggested.

West Berkshire Council heard there were opportunities for small-scale hydroelectric power generation on the River Kennet.