

Hampshire Mills Group Newsletter

Number 145 – May 2024

Keith Andrews

The Dean Heritage Centre at Soudley uses electricity generated by a modern waterwheel in the original wheelpit of the watermill that forms the main part of the centre. This is very similar to Harry Clarke's hydro installation at Sherborne St John, which HMG will be visiting in July.